

Story starter!

- ▶ Every night he had the same dream. Every night he was stuck in the same cycle, doing the same thing, night after night.
- ▶ In his dream he kept on walking. Round and round in circles he would go, trudging along the same, never-ending pavement again, and again, and again. It was like he was stuck on an enormous hamster wheel!
- ▶ When he awoke each morning, startled by the feeling of being trapped that he experienced night after night, he would ask himself 'why do I keep having the same dream again and again?', but then it would dawn on him: his dreams were on repeat because it felt like his life was on repeat. Something had to change...

Sentence challenge!

- ▶ Can you use a series of questions in your writing? Remember to use a question mark!
- ▶ E.g. Why was he having these dreams? Did something in his life have to change? What could he do to break to cycle?

Question time!

- ▶ Why is the man having the same dreams again and again?
- ▶ What do you think he means when he says it feels like his life is 'on repeat'?
- ▶ How is the man going to change this cycle that he's in?
- ▶ Why do you think there are birds and trees without leaves in his dream?
- ▶ Why does it always rain on him in his dream?
- ▶ Look at the surroundings. Where do you think his dream takes place?
- ▶ How will the man make this dream disappear from his life?
- ▶ Do you think the birds in his dream are also dreaming themselves?
- ▶ Have you ever had a dream that you think might have a meaning?

Sick sentences!

These sentences are 'sick' and need help to get better. Can you help? Could you add an adverb?

- ▶ The man walked on the pavement. A flock of birds went past him. It was raining.

Perfect picture!

Can you draw a picture of what your perfect dream would look like?

